About us

AWA Mutual Limited ACN 087 651 652, is a mutual financial services company owned by its members, that provides financial and community solutions.

We are an authorised representative (number 473375) of Bendigo Bank. We provide a range of financial products and services, principally as an agent of Bendigo Bank, and a range of other third parties as outlined in this document.

AWA Alliance Bank is a trade mark of Bendigo Bank.

Membership

Once a Member, you can access the various financial products and services on offer through our mutual financial services company, at any time. If you are not a member you can complete the membership application form.

Once the full subscription price (AUD$10.00) has been paid, you will be issued a share. Members 18 years of age, have voting rights and are eligible to hold an office in our company.

Memberships can also be opened for non-personal use (e.g. companies, trusts, clubs, and societies). To enable the opening of these memberships:

- they must be opened in the name of a separate legal entity
- verification of the status of the entity must be provided
- we must collect, and in some cases verify, information on the beneficiaries or beneficial owners of trusts and proprietary or private companies

Each Member may only hold one Member share. If a member holds more than one, we may give notice of our intention to redeem one of the membership shares at least 14 days prior to proceeding with the redemption. Upon redemption of the share we will refund the amount owing in respect of that share.

Your membership may also be closed and your Member share redeemed in some circumstances (for instance, where the Board determines that you are inactive). If you wish to close your membership, you must complete the necessary form in the Branch or advise us in writing (refer to Contact Us).

If you cease to be a Member, your share will be redeemed and refunded (less any outstanding fees owing).

Providing Instructions

We are responsible for managing the relationship with our Members and you can usually give us instructions by phone, fax, mail, or via our website (refer to Contact Us). Some financial products and services may have special instruction arrangements, which will be explained in the relevant PDS or Terms and Conditions.

In addition, Bendigo Bank retains the right to deal with disputes in relation to any of its financial products or services and as such, there may be some circumstances in which you will need to provide instructions to Bendigo Bank, or we will provide instructions on your behalf.

Referring Business

We have partnerships in place with local community organisations who refer business to us and referrer arrangements in place with them whereby we share the revenue earned on this referred business. These organisations earn up to 50% of the revenue earned by AWA. Revenue paid to referrers is from our own funds and is not directly charged to the applicant/member.

Currency of Information

Commission arrangements and other payments with business partners may vary from time-to-time and without notice. Information on current arrangements is available in the Branch at the point of acquiring any new product or service through us. You should also refer to the website and review the information available. The most recent copy of our FSG is available from the website.

Personal Information

We are committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Our privacy policy states how we collect, manage and use personal information. You can obtain a copy through our website or by calling us. In addition, the privacy policy of our suppliers will also apply to your personal information in relation to the products and services we provide on their behalf.

We aim to ensure that the personal information we retain about you is complete, accurate and up-to-date. If you have any concerns about the completeness or accuracy of the information we have about you or you would like to access or amend your information, simply call us or send an email (refer to Contact Us).

Resolving Complaints

We consider Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) to be an important and necessary first step in the complaint handling process as it gives us an opportunity to hear when we do not meet our customer's expectations and address them genuinely, efficiently and effectively.

You can raise your complaint with us by:

- (a) speaking to a member of our staff directly
- (b) telephoning 1300 056 953
